Cohen's Lottery and Exchange-Office.

Nec signo Fortuna.

BALTIMORE—FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1827.

The Official List of the Drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY OF VIRGINIA, 3d class, which took place at Richmond, on Wednesday last, the 24th inst. will be found on the opposite page. We have only time now to state, that the capital prize of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS (No. 5,222) is owned in a whole Ticket, and sent by mail from COHEN'S OFFICE on the 13th December—the 5000 DOLL. PRIZE (No. 15714) was divided and sold in three Quarters and two Eighths.—In our next, we shall mention, as far as we may have permission, where and to whom the prizes have fallen—As usual the Cash, is ready at COHENS' OFFICE, for the whole of the prizes, any moment that the tickets are presented.

Next Scheme—Odd and Even.

We have only time to insert the scheme of the 10th class of the Grand STATE LOTTERY OF MARYLAND—it is arranged on the Odd and Even System; which mode of drawing, has again been adopted, as a matter of course, in consequence of its established and unrivalled popularity—the scheme it will be perceived is small, the whole amount being but $60,000—The Tickets are at the low price of Three Dollars. The DRAWING will take place on Wednesday, the 14th of March.

*ORDERS for Tickets or Shares, above Scheme, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or Prizes in any of the Lotteries, will meet our accustomed prompt attention.—Address to

J. I. COHEN, JR. & BROTHERS.

The 20,000 Dollar Prize.

This brilliant capital, drawn in the Grand State Lottery of Maryland on the 17th inst. we have already paid, as stated in a Post-script to our last Register—we then mentioned the payment to Mr. Samuel Young of this city, and that the owner of the fortunate ticket (a friend of Mr. Y's) resided in Philadelphia; we can now inform the public, that Mr. SAMUEL F. BRADFORD, bookseller of that city, is the lucky possessor of this handsome gift of Fortune.

The 5,000 dollar prize was held by a gentleman in New York, who also is already in possession of the Cash. Of the 10,000 dollar prize, we hope in our next to have permission of saying where and to whom it fell.

We continue on the fourth page the Official List of the drawing of the Grand State Lottery of Maryland, so that in case any of last week's Register should not have reached their destination, the failure will thus be provided for.

THE EVEN NUMBERS. Adventurers will recollect that although the Capital prize in the Grand State Lottery of Maryland (drawn on the 17th inst.) came out to an Odd Number, thereby entitling all the odd numbers to Four dolls—it does not follow that all the Even numbers, in consequence, are Blanks—such is not the case—for on examination of the list of drawing it will be perceived that many of the even numbers drew prizes, and many of them of considerable importance; for example 17182 drew 1000 dolls.—3266, 4446, 19052 prizes of 500 dollars each, &c.

Strangers visiting Baltimore are respectfully informed, that we have but one Office in the city of Baltimore, and that one, at No. 114, Market-street. We mention this in order to prevent mistakes (which we learn are of frequent occurrence) in consequence of the similarity of name (on paper) of another office.—In calling, sending or directing, our friends will please be particular in noticing the above.

Congress of the United States.

Trade with British Colonies.—In both Houses of Congress, on Tuesday last, Reports were made, by Mr. J. S. JOHNSTON, in the Senate, and by Mr. TOMLINSON, in the House of Representatives, accompanied by bills, in substantially the same form, for regulating trade and intercourse between the United States and the British Colonies.

The reports in both Houses are of considerable length, and exhibit much industry and research. Our readers will, in a few days, have an opportunity of seeing them.

The object of the bill, it will be seen, is, to prevent the admission of any vessels into the ports of the United States, after the 30th day of September next, from the Colonies and possessions of Great Britain, including them all by name except Upper Canada: with a provision for the suspension of the act in either of two cases, viz: First, if the President shall receive satisfactory evidence that the ports in the British Colonies and Possessions are open to the admission of vessels of the U. States, paying no higher or other duties than those levied on British vessels, and that our vessels are permitted to export therefrom the same produce, and on the same terms as British vessels, then this act may be suspended by proclamation of the President. Secondly: the bill proposes the provision which Mr. Gallatin was authorized to propose to the British Government, viz: that if vessels of the United States are admitted into the British Colonies or possessions, paying no higher duties than the vessels of Great Britain, and permitted to export thence, to any country except Great Britain, any articles which British vessels may export, then the President may declare, by proclamation, that British vessels arriving in the U. States from the Colonies of Great Britain, shall not be subjected to any higher duties than vessels of the United States, &c.

From and after the date of such proclamation, in either case, the acts of Congress of 1818, 1820, and 1823, being all the acts restricting this trade, are declared to be repealed; the effect of which repeal will be, to leave British vessels at liberty to clear from the United States to any country whatever as our vessels may clear thence.

The general language of this act is to say, to the British government, if you will open the direct trade between the U. States and the Colonies we will do the same: if you insist on the circuitous trade, we shall follow your lead. The bill seems to be framed in a spirit of amity, by which also the report of the Committee of Commerce in each house appears to be characterized. At this we are the more gratified, as we are decidedly opposed to any thing like a quarrel between the two nations upon any question such as the one involved in this controversy. which each nation has an indisputable right to act upon municipally, without offence to the other. We have no doubt that in the end, Great Britain will see her interest in retracing her steps, seeing that the U. States is entirely disposed to act towards her on principles of reciprocity.—Nat Int

Relief of the Alexandria Sufferers.—The bill for this object, (appropriating TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS,) which had passed the House of Representatives, (109 to 67,) it gives us pleasure to state, also passed the Senate yesterday. It was taken up at an early hour of the sitting, and passed forthwith, without debate, though not without dissenting votes, (27 to 17.)

Soon after the bill passed the Senate, it was enrolled, signed by the presiding officers of the two Houses, submitted to the President of the United States, signed immediately by him, sent to the Secretary of the Treasury, and a draft forthwith transmitted to the Mayor of Alexandria for the amount of the appropriation.

Cross Examination. During a trial which took place in the country, a respectable though not very ostentatious looking gentleman occupied the witness box devotedly waiting a cross examination. "Pray Mr. Ottiwell Wood," said the opening counsel, "how do you spell your name?" "Oh! sir," replied Mr. Wood, "very easily—a lesson in it is very much at your service." "Come, sir, don't be impertinent; let his lordship hear it." The witness proceeded thus trippingly: "O double t, i double u, e double l: double u, double o. d. The barrister looked confounded, the court and jury laughed, and Mr. Ottiwell Wood's evidence was suffered to pass as unshakeable.

MODE OF DRAWING.—The Numbers will be put into one wheel as usual—and in the other will be put the prizes above the denomination of Two Dollars, and the drawing to progress in the usual manner. The 15,000 prizes of $2 each will be awarded to the odd or even numbers of the Lottery, (as the case may be) dependent on the drawing of the capital prize of Ten Thousand Dollars—that is to say, if the 10,000 dollar prize should come out to an odd number, then every odd number in the scheme will be entitled to a $2 prize; if the 10,000 dollar prize should come out to an even number, then all the even numbers in the scheme will be each entitled to a prize of $2.

Odd Numbers are those ending with 1, 3, 5, 7 or 9.

Even Numbers are those ending with 2, 4, 6, 8 or 0.

This mode of drawing not only enables the Commissioners to complete the whole Lottery in ONE DRAWING but has the great advantage of distributing the small prizes regularly to every alternate number in the scheme, so that the holder of two Tickets or two Shares of Tickets, (one Odd and one Even Number) will be certain of obtaining at least one prize, and in the same ratio for any greater quantity. ☞ A ticket drawing a superior prize in this scheme is not restricted from drawing an inferior one also—many tickets, therefore, will necessarily obtain TWO PRIZES EACH!

The Numbers above to which no prizes are affixed are prizes of Ten Dollars each—those ending with either 1, 3, 5, 7 or 9, being Odd Numbers, are entitled to Four Dollars additional. All Tickets ending with either 1, 3, 5, 7, or 9, are entitled to Four Dollars each—those ending with 2, 4, 6, 8, or 0, and not to be found amongst the above, are Blanks.

28.847, an Odd Number,

Having drawn the Capital Prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, agreeably to the scheme every Odd Number in the Lottery is entitled to a prize of FOUR DOLLARS, and in addition to whatever sum any of them may have drawn besides.

All Tickets with Numbers ending with either 1, 3, 5, 7 or 9, are those entitled to the Four Dollar prizes.

Many Tickets, consequently, have obtained TWO PRIZES EACH!—for example, No. 7233 (see list above) having drawn Twenty Dollars, and being an Odd Number, is entitled to a prize of four dollars also; therefore, No. 7233 will receive Twenty-four Dollars, &c. Again, No. 20,299 (see list above) having drawn a prize of One Hundred Dollars, and being an Odd Number, is entitled also to one of the four dollar prizes; consequently, No. 20,299 will receive One Hundred and Four Dollars, and so on.
